

Married Applicants: May apply for a separate account.

Individual Credit: You must complete the Applicant section about yourself and the other section about your spouse if:

1. you live in a community property state (AK, AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, P.R., TX, WA, WI).
2. your spouse will use the account, or
3. you are relying on your spouse's income as a source of repayment. If you are relying on income from alimony, child support, or separate maintenance, complete the Other section to the extent possible about the person on whose payments you are relying.

Joint Credit – if you are applying for a joint account or an account that you and another person will use, you must complete the applicant and Spouse Co-Applicant section

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.
